RADWAY'S REGULATORS.—The discovery of this last great remedy establishes in medicine entirely acceptance of the Principles, which medical writers and sages have for years in vain sought to discover. A New York firm announces that they have Middlesex, teen "trying to improve all kinds of spirits from New Haven, grain and turn them into a good imitation of New London, French cognac, and that, after much labor and Windham, experiment, they at least found an article to anewer that purpose." They thus set forth the process of manufactory:

They announce also that "a splendid imitation of Holland gin can be produced by mixing one garlon of the spirits with forty gallons of pure spirits. In addition, they have constantly on hand a fine specimen of 'chemical coloring,' by which the 'dark' article of imitation brandy is preduced." And these testimonials come not alone from the ignorant, but from per-sons of every degree of intelligence, and every rank of life. Physicians of the first respectability and perfectly conversant with the nature of dis eases and remedies, have recommended this as one of the most effectual in their line of preparations for the extinction of pain.

As an internal remedy the Pain Killer has no Complaint, Dysentery, Dysepessa, Asthama, Rheumatism, &c., by taking it internally and bathing with it freely. It is the best liniment in America. THE GER. PIKE.-This new and beautiful steamer, Capt. W. F. Fuller, master, has been engaged in the Mail Line between this city and Cincinnati since the water was sufficient to float her. BRANNAN'S ART UNION DRAWING .- In another column will be found an advertisement of Wm. P. Braunan's collection of original Oil and Pastel Paintings. These pictures were on exhibi tion at the Mechanic's Institute Fair, and all who saw them, will bear us witness that a finer collection of Art was never before seen in this city. We advise our "Merchant Princes" and lovers of Art generally, to call at Mr. B.'s studio and avail themselves of the opportunity of securing a share before it is too late. We believe tickets may also be had at the principal book and music stores of the city. Brannan's studio is at the corner of Fifth and Jefferson

The Washington Star says the late difficulty between Messis. Pryor and Finney, of Vir. ginia, originated about the account of a discussion at Accomac, between the Doctor and a person of the name of Curtis, published in the cor. sepondence of the Enquirer, which stated that Finney attempted to reply, but did not speak five minutes before he quit the stand. Finney denounced Pryor as a rascal, and said that he would post him as a coward for publishing the account. Pryor met him near the Exchange, and on the language above given being repeated, he struck Finney in the face. Therefore, a challenge was passed and a meeting took place .-Finney was badly wounded, the ball entering his

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT .- When the Swedish Nightingale sang in Mozart Hall for the benefit of herself and Barnum, the room was densely crowded. "Standee tickets" commanded a pre. mium. To-night some of our own Louisville birds of song appear for the benefit of the poor and destitute among us. They sing for the support of an institution whose object it is to feed the hungry and clothe the naked, by giving them employment during the inclement season. rapidly approaching. Let us then, to-night, witness n "Jenny Lind audience," and thus, while our hearts are delighted with the heavenly strains of our sweet young vocalists, we shall be making glad the hearts of others.

It is needless to urge our kind hearted and music-loving citizens to attend. The programme is published in another column, and is decidedly one of the most attractive we have ever seen. Mr. Whipple's pupils are said to have made great proficiency under his tuition. We are certain they have not declined in disposition to do good, and relieve the wants of the needy. EASTEQUARE AT MALTA -On Sunday, the 25th of October, at eleven minutes before 2 o'clock A. M., the Island of Malta and Gozo were visited by shocks of an earthquake, so violent in their nature and so long in their duration that the old-est inhabitants do not remember ever to have experienced anything so severe. The first shock made itself perceptible by a tremutous motion similar to that caused by the passing of a heavy gen-carriage a thousand times repeated, accompanied by a rumbling noise of distant thunder, which rapidly increased in violence until every building treamtled. Scarcely a minute had alapsed when a more violent shock, accompanied by a louder noise, occurred. The alarm occasioned was general throughout town and country.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years part, I have been hable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous trinability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortunately, I was recommended by a frend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in tess than two weeks, indigestion crossed; pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily leadth, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost miraculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the innseries of Dyspepsis will avail the medices of your efficient remedy.

I would eall the attention of my briends and the public magneral to the above letter, handed to me by Massys. W. B. & Co., extensive liquor merchants. It is well known by the Chicinnast public that several of my Safes, of different sizes, have stood, of late, every severe tests. Among others, I would refer to the fire at Mr. Scovilled druggist, that of Messys. Davie & Co., Iron mercanute and bounders; that of Mr. Shillith, soap and candle fastor; that of Messys. Greaud & Sarran, liquor and wine merchants. The Safes all came out victorious, although surrounded by the most combustable material.

Having acquired all the late unprovements, I dare say that my Safes are inferior to none made the safe the mountains. As to the oniter appearance, I combine neasures with dirability. Thankful for past favors, a con inustion opartonage is kindly solicited.
